From Our ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

Hello Everyone and a Warm Welcome to the Red Barn Theatre's 44th Season!!!

If you love... hilarity, oodles of outlandish characters played by two fabulous comic actors, crazy and colorful costumes by Sushi, Yuletide shenanigans, small town Texas and fun for all.... then A Tuna Christmas is for you! (December 19 - January 13).

If you love... Women in the White House, a fast paced, non-stop action farce, laughing so hard it hurts, potty-mouthed brilliant humor, seven knock-your-socks-off female actors and a Tony-nominated, fresh from Broadway show... then POTUS or Behind Every Great Dumbass Are Seven Women Trying to Keep Him Alive is for you! (January 30 - February 24).

If you love... Chicago songstress Christine Mild who wow'd em last season with Patsy Cline classics, the best songs and stories of the incredible women of country music, great musicians led by Jim Rice and a new show made just for you.... then This One's For The Girls is for you! (January 17 - 20) Four Nights Only!

If you love... another fresh from Broadway hit comedy, a delicious roasting of those trying hard to do the right thing, four adorably funny actors, sexy scenarios, a wickedly good script and a wildly chaotic classroom where good intentions collide with absurd assumptions... then The Thanksgiving Play is for you! (March 5 - 30)

If you love... a briskly entertaining play that is buoyantly literate, having your preconceptions disturbed, a tick-tocking urgency, terrifically funny dialogue that is a battle over factual truth vs. the beauty of literary license and three cracker-jack actors... then The Lifespan of A Fact is for you! (April 9 - 27)

WE HOPE ALL OF OUR 44th SEASON IS FOR YOU!!!

With Affection and Gratitude to you, our Amazing Audience,

-- Joy Hawkins

From Our MANAGING DIRECTOR

Thank you for joining us for our 44th blockbuster season!
When I say that I think to myself... 44 years... is that right? It is!
And Gary McDonald and Joy Hawkins and I have lived to tell all the tales. Our artistic journey has been one I am very proud of.
Take a look at the spectacular variety of shows listed in this program.

Our roster of artists has also been impressive.

I am most proud of the teams behind the scenes that we have in place to market, develop, outreach and face the public at the box office.

Bob Bowersox, Chris Hamilton, Julie Jeffers, Michael Naughton, Roberta DePiero, Susannah Wells and JT Thompson are among the contributors to our continued success, along with our fabulous board under the direction of Kim Works.

Michelle Chennault, this year's recipient of the Red Barn's 2023 Unsung Hero Award jumped in as a proactive board member who took over Opening Night Parties and last year's fabulous Gala.

Don't miss this year's party Life's a Drag! Many surprises await you at another Michelle Chennault original! So thank you, Village! We appreciate you!

Have a wonderful evening!

From Our EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

44 years at the Red Barn Theatre has given me the chance to watch the effect Theatre has had on this island.

Giving locals the chance to shine in the community brightens events that help us celebrate Key West and its diverse community. Letting audiences come together to share in fresh ideas about what improves our lives helps us live together.

Our audiences are looking to be entertained but they also want to learn something new and be surprised. Your attendance is what has made this possible. Your support is very appreciated.

Enjoy the show!

-- Gary McDonald

OUR 2023-24 SEASON PRODUCTIONS

Production #1

December 19 thru January 13, 2024

Written by Ed Howard, Joe Sears & Jaston Williams • Directed by Michael Marrero

It's one of the popular Tuna series of plays, and is a perfect show to point up the holidays. Two of Key West's most popular and accomplished actors, Brandon Beach and David Black, will star, and between them will bring dozens of characters and voices to life in the hilarious production!

Special Event

January 17 thru 20

Christine Mild, with her new show, The Women of Country Music. Known for her accomplished interpretation of Patsy Cline, Mild will deliver the top hits of the most iconic female singers in the long history of country music. She'll be accompanied by pianist/arranger Jim Rice, bassist Gary Rivenson, and drummer Gary McDonald.

Production #2

January 30 thru February 24

Written by Selina Fillinger

A funny and outrageous skewering of today's politics. Hawkins will direct Key West's top actresses, George Dibraud, Susannah Wells, Lauren Thompson, Jessica Miano Kruel, Marjorie Paul Shook, Lynn Clark and Fritzie Esimond. If you want to laugh 'til you cry, this is your show.

Production #3

March 5 thru 30

Written by Larissa FastHorse • Directed by Mimi McDonald • Good intentions collide with absurd assumptions in this wickedly funny satire, as “woke” teaching artists scramble to somehow create a pageant that manages to celebrate both Turkey Day and Native American Heritage Month. Starring Arthur Crocker, Jeremy Zoma and Elena Devers, it's a “delicious roasting!”

Production #4

April 9 thru May 4

Written by Jeremy Kareken, David Murrell & Gordon Farrell • A fact checker and a talented writer at a prominent but sinking New York magazine clash when the former must fact check the latter's explosive essay that could save the magazine. It's a comedic yet gripping battle over facts versus truth. What could be more timely?

Special Event

Sunday, January 14

Our always-popular annual fundraiser will take place at the Oldest House Gardens on Duval Street, from 5pm until 9pm. As a themed party, all attendees are encouraged to let their "drag" alter-ego out to play. Tickets will be $150 and include a delicious spread catered by Destinations Catering and even an Open Bar! We'll enjoy hysterical performances by some of Key West's most iconic "drag" entertainers.

The HISTORY of RED BARN THEATRE

Originally the carriage house for Key West's Oldest House (circa 1829), the little Red Barn seemed destined for a theatrical future. When automobiles made it obsolete, the Barn was adopted by the Key West Community Players, who offered a lively variety of plays on its stage throughout the 1940s.

After World War II, when the Community Players had moved to their beautiful Waterfront Playhouse at Mallory Square, the Barn was dusted off again by Ruth Guttman, who, with her husband Yehuda, presented wonderful puppet shows during the late 1960s and 1970s. Yehuda, a gifted concert pianist, also offered many concerts on tropical evenings at the Barn.

After a period of dormancy in the 1970s, a spirited group of actors and technicians renovated the theatre, opening the Barn doors in 1980 under the incorporated name "The Red Barn Actor's Studio, Inc." As the Barn has prospered and grown into a cultural cornerstone for our community, we have picked up the mantle of literary heritage that Key West has to offer by utilizing the great talent resources available to us: Richard Wilbur (former Poet Laureate of the U.S., worked alongside us in our productions of his Moliere translations); Shel Silverstein many times gave us carte blanche with his work; other notables include Jimmy Buffett, Philip Burton, Jerry Herman... and in the early days, Tennessee Williams.

Forty four amazing years later, the Red Barn Theatre is considered a gem in the cultural landscape of Key West, producing five to six professional live shows during each season along with special events. We are proud to have been named "One of the Best Professional Theatres in South Florida" by Florida Monthly Magazine!

The strength of the Barn lies in our commitment to quality theatre and community involvement. To all our patrons and supporters - and to our many visitors from far-away places... we welcome you to our amazing island and the Red Barn Theatre. Enjoy the show!

Our 2023 UNSUNG HERO

Red Barn Theatre is delighted to award MICHELLE CHENNAULT our Unsung Hero Award! As a new board member, she happily jumped in to not only organize the Opening Night Parties, she demonstrated her brilliant catering skills with each event. She almost single-handedly put together our beautiful fundraiser last year and will again this year, with our party Life's a Drag! January 15. Her good nature and dedication make her a perfect board member.
